PITTSBURGH, Feb. 10, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- WESCO International, Inc. (NYSE: WCC), a leading provider of business-to-business distribution, logistics services and supply chain solutions, announces the upcoming retirement of Dave Schulz, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and the appointment of Indraneel "Neel" Dev as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Schulz notified the Company that he expects to retire in May 2026, and Mr. Dev will join the Company in February 2026 to ensure a smooth transition.

Most recently, Mr. Dev served as the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Revenue Officer of Congruex LLC, a communications network infrastructure design, engineering and construction company. Prior to Congruex, Mr. Dev served as Chief Financial Officer of Lumen Technologies. He previously held various senior finance leadership roles at Level 3 Communications, MCI, and MFS Communications. Mr. Dev holds a B.A. in Mathematics from the University of Delhi (India) and an MBA from the University of Arizona, and he is a CFA charterholder.

Mr. John J. Engel, Wesco's Chairman, President and CEO stated, "Neel is a seasoned CFO with extensive financial, commercial and operational experience in multiple Wesco-served end markets. In his leadership roles for both public and private companies, he has demonstrated an ability to navigate complex financial environments and deliver superior growth and value creation. Neel is an excellent addition to our executive management team and will help us as we continue to accelerate our Wesco strategy, execute our growth initiatives, deliver our financial targets, and create value for our stockholders."

Mr. Engel, continued, "On behalf of our Board of Directors and our entire Wesco team, I would like to thank Dave for his outstanding and dedicated service and tremendous contributions to our Wesco success over the past 10 years. I have the utmost respect for Dave and greatly appreciate our business partnership in building the new Wesco. We extend our very best wishes to Dave and his family."
