

Wesco Named to Fortune's Inaugural AIQ50 List

PITTSBURGH, Pa. January 21, 2026 - Wesco International (NYSE:WCC), a leading provider of business-to-business distribution, logistics services and supply chain solutions, has been recognized by Fortune Magazine as an inaugural member of the AIQ50, a list that recognizes the top 50 Fortune 500 companies most effectively using artificial intelligence to create real business value.

Wesco earned the #10 spot on the Fortune AIQ50 list, a ranking that is measured by how companies are leveraging AI to drive innovation, efficiency and competitive advantage. Measurements are determined from the result of evaluations from Fortune – in partnership with Enterprise Technology Research (ETR) and leveraging ServiceNow's Enterprise AI Maturity Index- based on organization's AI investments, outcomes and reputation among industry peers. Fortune also states that companies recognized on the AIQ50 list are not only investing meaningfully in AI but are also delivering results, scaling AI across the enterprise and building a culture of trust and enthusiasm around AI transformation.

"We prioritize responsible AI innovation through strong governance, clear objectives and workforce development. This recognition highlights our ongoing commitment to advancing AI while ensuring people remain central to our progress," said John Engel, Chairman, President and CEO.

The Wesco team is appreciative of this recognition of our efforts to navigate today's transformational era of AI-driven change and we look forward to continuing to build on AI initiatives that will generate unprecedented business impact.
